

Heaven is His Home.

An editor died and slowly wended his way down to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. The devil met him and said:

"For many years thou hast bore the blame for the bad spelling that the printer has gotten off in the paper. The paper has gone for one dollar, and alas, the dollar has failed to come in. The printer has bedeviled thee for wages when thou hasn't a farthing to thy name. People have taken the paper without paying for it, and cursed thee for not getting out a better sheet. Thou hast been called a deadbeat by the railroad conductors when thou has shown thy annual pass to his envious gaze. All these things thou hast borne in silence. Thou shalt not enter here." And as the editor turns and walks away, Satan mutters: "Heaven is his home, and besides, if I let him in here he would have been dunning his delinquent subscribers and thus creating discord in my kingdom."—Hickman County News.

A bed bug that was being relentlessly pursued by a busy housewife managed to escape into the yard and was figuring on where he would go next when he saw another bug sitting on the window sill of a neighboring house beckoning him to come over. "Come over and bunk with me," said the second bug in a hospitable manner, "you will find this a mighty good place to stay." "Isn't there any woman of the house over there?" asked the first bug cautiously. "Oh, yes, there is a lady of the house here but you needn't worry about her, as she is preparing a paper to read at the next meeting of the club on the subject of 'How to Care for a Home and Save the Boys.'" And right there the two bugs formed a partnership that lasted until both died of old age.—Ex.

There comes a period in almost every school girl's life when she imagines herself in love. She is not very particular who she loves, most any young fellow will do, but she feels that she is fairly pining away with love for him, and neglects studies to "cast sheep's eyes" and write "spoony" notes. The most of them learn better as they grow older, and realize that the symptoms they recognized as love, were simply the result of indigestion, a too plentiful supply of sickly sentimental novels, or too much moonshine and promenading and not enough home and housework.—Ex.

We Eat Nearly Seven Pounds Daily.

The average adult in exercise requires as a day's ration about six pounds and thirteen ounces. Of this amount about five pounds will be water found in the common foods and taken as beverage. Of the remaining part, one-fourth will be nitrogenous matter, three-fourths carbonaceous, with about two hundred grains mineral matter.—Ladies' Home Journal.

AN EVANGELIST'S STORY
"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from malades of this kind." "One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children." H. L. Jones.

LAXAKOLA

THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE

If you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, blotched or muddy skin, or any symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system, Laxakola Will Cure You.

It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels move regularly, your liver and kidneys cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Postmaster Palmer

of So. Glen Falls, N. Y., describes a condition which thousands of men and women find identical with theirs. Read what he says, and note the similarity of your own case. Write to him, enclosing stamped envelope for reply, and get a personal corroboration of what is here given. He says regarding

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure:

"I suffered agonizing pain in the left breast and between my shoulders from heart trouble. My heart would palpitate, flutter, then skip beats, until I could no longer lie in bed. Night after night I would sit up, for to lie down would have meant sudden death. My condition seemed almost hopeless when I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, but it helped me from the first. Later I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with the Heart Cure and the effect was astonishing. I eventually implore similar sufferers to give these remedies a trial."
